Each year the members of the Monmouth County PBA Conference (MCPBA) award two highly competitive academic scholarships in the memory of people who impacted the lives of our membership. The Richard Coutu Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a male and the Allison Lynam Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a female. Each award is $1,000.

Eligible individuals must be accepted as a FRESHMAN at an accredited Junior College, College or University and have a parent:

- A. who is an active member of a MCPBA local, or
- B. who retired in good standing from a MCPBA local, or
- C. who died in the line-of-duty while an active member of a MCPBA local.

In order to be considered, an eligible applicant must complete the following requirements:

- A. This application must be completed in full.
- B. Application and required documents (transcripts, SAT results, principal/counselor statement and essay) must be received no later than April 15, 2011.

Scholarship winners will be announced in May, 2011.
